Join leading Dance Movement Educators & Education Specialists from Colorado State University and the region to explore how we can bring more movement into our K–12 classrooms!

Presented by the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance and the College of Liberal Arts at the University Center for the Arts, Fort Collins, Colorado

JUNE 11-15, 2018  9 A.M. – 4:30 P.M.

SEMINAR TOPICS:
- Let's Move! Dance Skills, Concepts, and Comprehensive Learning
- Social & Emotional Learning in the Classroom
- Dance Collaboration Across K-12 Higher Education and the Broader Community
- Integrated Arts Initiatives in Education
- Dance Movement Science and the Human Brain
- Colorado Dance Standards, Assessment, and Curriculum Planning

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Seminar enrollment is limited to 30 Colorado K–12 Educators. Cost for the seminar is $125

Registration is now open – please go to the REGISTRATION link on our CSU Dance Page dance.colostate.edu/teachers-seminar

Teachers may sign up for CSU Continuing Education Credit (fee required) for Teacher Enhancement Purposes.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT US:
Lisa Morgan, Dance Faculty, CSU / Lisa.Morgan@colostate.edu